

The Greater Rochester Arts and Cultural Trust announces the return of “Park the Arts!”

Park the Arts is a city-wide project created to connect neighborhoods and develop a sense of community through exposure to quality arts programming.

The event is free, family-friendly and open to the community. Bring a chair, blanket and refreshments and enjoy an afternoon to socialize, relax and be entertained by outstanding artists.

JULY 10 - 2:00-3:30

Rain date July 11

Central Park. 225 1st Ave. NW

Swing Street (17 piece Rochester-based jazz band performing and celebrating for over 20 years the “Big Band” sound of artists from a popular and well-loved musical era)

JULY 17 - 2:00-3:30

Rain date July 18

Cimarron Park • 2029 48th St. NW

Loud Mouth Brass and Twin Cities-based McNasty Brass Band (fusing the sounds of New Orleans, Minneapolis and Pop through instrumental arrangements and original music guaranteed to get everyone dancing to the beat)

JULY 24 - 2:00-3:30

Rain date July 25

Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr Park. 1738 E. Center St.

Mitch Stevenson’s production of “A Brief History of Jazz, Blues & Gospel Part III!” with Brass Etc. featuring John Sievers, Doug Porter, Knufunk featuring LaSonya Natividad, and Rochester’s own blues legend Annie Mack.

Thank you to our partners:

CARL AND VERA
SCHMIDT FOUNDATION

Park the Arts is funded in part by a Start-Up Event Grant from the Rochester Downtown Alliance

SEMAM activities are made possible by the voters through grants from the MN State Arts Board thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts & cultural heritage fund

