

General Info

These non-revenue producing projects can include, but are not limited to, identification signage, bike racks, mini libraries or food pantries, pocket park improvements, physical activity opportunities, butterfly & rain gardens, festivals, food trucks, native plantscaping, public art projects, live performances (musicians, theatre, etc.), and neighborhood gatherings.

- Rolling application deadline (continuous applications accepted).
- Up to $3,000 annually available in total reimbursable grant funds per neighborhood.
- Multiple grant applications are accepted. Projects do not need to be bundled on one application.
- Notification of award within the month of application submission.
- Later project completion deadline of December 15, 2024. Grant summary required.
- Eligible applicants include registered neighborhood associations, as well as other neighborhood groups. An unregistered neighborhood group can submit a “letter of commitment” to discuss the benefits of forming a neighborhood association.
- This application can be submitted via video. Just ensure the budget portion is clear.

RNeighors 2024 Neighborhood Grant Application Form

1. Project title:

2. Neighborhood name:

3. Core leadership team on the project:

4. Narrative – Tell us about your project!

Address the following questions (600 words or less):

- What is the project?
- Describe how this project will enhance/benefit the neighborhood and foster a sense of community.
- How does the project include opportunities to involve multiple neighbors in shaping and carrying out the project?
- How have/will neighborhood residents been included in the project planning process?
- What partners are supporting and/or collaborating on this effort?

5. Estimated budget (include in-kind donations):

In-Kind examples include: donated supplies, reduced professional rates, and volunteer time at a value of $31.80 per hour. Volunteer hours are important to keep track of throughout your entire project. In this estimate include planning meetings, grant writing, work sessions and neighborhood meetings when project is reviewed. Please provide a financial estimate, we realize as the project progresses that costs may fluctuate.

Example: Donated supplies $450, volunteer time (70 hours x $31.80=$ 2,226), and purchased supplies $2,050. Funds requested = $2,050. Match = $450 + $2,226 = $2,676.
